

ARE YOU READY FOR A BIG DAMN FIGHT?

PLAY A CARD.

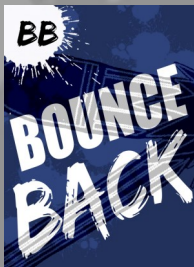

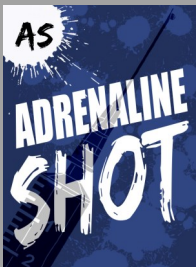

Choose your weapon! From your hand of five cards, play a red Weapon card with one of 24 unique death dealers and call out your opponent to go mano a mano in the tabletop arena!

ROLL SOME DICE.

Using the color-coded dice - or your own standard RPG dice - roll to see if you hit your opponent based on the stats on your Weapon card. If you land a shot, roll again to see how much of a hurtin' you put on them! But now it's their turn to attack...

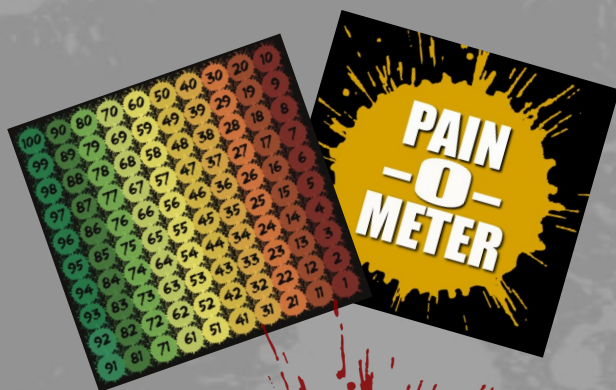

Of course no one said it was going to be a fair fight. Any one of seven unique blue Chaos cards can turn the tide of battle as you double the damage you dole out, reflect an attack back at your opponent, or maybe someone from the crowd just throws a bundle of dynamite at your feet. You never know what's going to happen!

Recharge between bouts by using green Health cards filled with five delectable dishes like a buncha nanners, a nice T-bone steak, or a Big Damn Burrito to get you back in the game.

As you fight, you can track how close you are to death's door by using our handy-dandy Pain-O-Meter!

KILL YOUR FRIENDS.

But in the end, all that really matters is that you're the last one standing! Will you go down easy like Sunday morning or will you become the best Big Damn Fighter? There's only one way to find out!

- 108 Poker-sized Cards
